

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Considering that these are public airways and Sinclair uses them free of charge they are required to serve the public interest. I certainly have no interest in Republican propoganda nor would I be interested in Democratic propoganda. But if this negative John Kerry movie is allowed, then a negative Bush movie should also be allowed such as 'Fahrenheit 9/11'.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules! Thank you.
